Numb. 740.

THE

So^th.-Carolina GAZETTE.

Containing the freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestick.

From WEDNESDAY June 15th, to MONDAY June 20th, 1748.

LONDON, March 10.

YESTERDAY the Money taken on board the French South-Sea Ship, by Capt. Montague in his Majesty's Ship the Bristol, was brought to Town from Portsmouth, guarded by a Party of Soldiers, and lodged in the Bank.

We hear that the French, who first declared war, modestly demand the restitution of Cape Breton, the establishment of Don Philip in Italy, and the reimbursement of the Genoese, in every particular, before she will make peace.

More ships of the Line are ordered to sail, and reinforce Admiral Boscawen, in the East-Indies.

Six ships of the Line and four sloops, are ordered for Cape-Breton.

March 12. The States General have resolved absolutely to prohibit the Entry of all French Productions into their Dominions.

They write from Petersburgh, that a Discovery is made of a great many Intrigues, which were carried on by M. d'Allion, during his Residence in Russia.

LONDON, March 17.

We are well informed, that several new Kinds of Lawns, and other Manufactures, of a Fabrick equally beautiful, and much preferable for Strength, to French Cambricks, have been lately made in Great Britain and Ireland, and will be introduced as soon as the Act for prohibiting that expensive and destructive Manufacture takes Place; nor is it to be doubted, that in the Space of a few Years, with the Help of a little Encouragement, we shall surmount all the Obstacles in the Linnen Manufactory, and arrive at as great Perfection, in all its Branches, as can be desired.

Some Persons who were taken into Custody, by Virtue of Warrants from one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, and committed to the Custody of Mr. Carrington, one of his Majesty's Messengers, are very closely confined, and a File of Musqueteers, from St. James's Guard, are posted in and about the House for their greater Security. But what the Nature of their Offences may be, is not guessed at, at present, nor in all Probability will be, till after they are examined. It is however reported, that other Warrants have been likewise issued, in Consequence of Discoveries lately made of certain illicit and dangerous Correspondencies carried on in different Parts of this Kingdom.

The Lords of the Admiralty have contracted for building six Ships of War of 20 Guns each, in the Merchants Yards on the River, & are to be called the Stork, Porcupine, Serpent, Unicorn, Vulture, and Ætna.

The Salisbury Man of War, Capt. Edgecombe, is arrived at Plymouth with her Prize, the Jason, a French East-India-Man, who mounts 40 Guns, and has Ports for 50.

The Romney Man of War has also taken a French East-India Ship, of 40 Guns.

The Government are contracting with several Merchants of this City, for Ships to be employed as arm'd Vessels in his Majesty's Service.

A large Number of Marines are raising, in order to be sent on board a Fleet, which will soon sail on an important Expedition.

Two Ships of 40 Guns are ordered to sail to the Assistance of Commodore Mitchel at Flushing. And

The Confusion and Distress which reigns amongst the Garison and Inhabitants of Bergen-op-Zoom, since the Advantage gained by the Allies on the 15th of this Month, is so great, that very considerable Wagers have been laid at the Hague that it is again in the Possession of its old masters before May-Day next.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland since his Arrival in Holland has held many Conferences with the Prince Stadtholder and Marshal Bathiani: and in pursuance of the Resolutions therein taken for an early Opening of the Campaign, several Regiments are already marching on the Side of Maestricht, and some others are likewise advancing towards the Meuse and into the Barony of Breda. Count Bathiani has likewise dispatched the last Orders for the March of the Imperial Regiments which wintered in Cologne and its Neighbourhood.

LONDON, March 19.

They write from Petersburgh, that some very important Discoveries have been made there, in reference to the true Design of the famous Treaty of Stockholm, which Discoveries had made it necessary to bring upon the Carpet a Counter-Alliance, calculated to preserve the Peace of the North, to guaranty the Dominions of her Czarish Majesty, as also the Succession, as settled by Law, in the Imperial Family; which Alliance, it is hoped, will contribute not a little to the giving a new Face to the Affairs of Europe, more especially as the Russian Court proposes to keep a powerful Fleet in the Baltick in order to frustrate the Designs of their particular Enemies, as well as those of the Empress-Queen and her Allies.

We learn from Venice, that the Turkish Gally lately carried into Malta is a Prize of much greater Value than was at first expected; there were on board it not only the Bashaw of Rhodes, but the late Grand Vizir, and even a greater Man than he, the Pretender to the Crown of Persia, who were sent into Banishment in that Island. There were on board the Gally two hundred Christian Slaves, who rose on the 8th of January, about Four in the Morning, upon a Signal given by the Men at the Helm, who cried out St. John of Jerusalem for ever; there were forty six Turks upon Deck, whom they immediately secured and disarmed, and about a hundred below whom they confined there 'till they arrived safely in the Harbour of Malta. It is reported that the Grand Vizir's Effects in Money and Jewels are worth several hundred thousand Crowns, and that those of the Persian Pretender are of more considerable Value.

Private Letters by Yesterday's Dutch Mail advise that an Embargo is laid on all their Ships in the several Ports belonging to the Dutch, in order to man a Number of Men of War.

Last Night there was a Grand Council held at the Cockpit, on Affairs of Importance.

The Lords of the Admiralty have appointed Charles Watson, Esq; Nephew of the late Sir Charles Wager, to be Commodore and Commander in Chief of the Squadron to be sent to Newfoundland, &c.

They write from Ratisbon, that Mr. Burrish Minister-Plenipotentiary from his Britannick Majesty to the Circles of the Empire, is gone to Nuremberg in order to present to the States of the Circle of Franconia the King his Master's Requisitorial-Letters for the Passage of the auxiliary Corps of Russian Troops, which are expected in Bohemia about the Middle of May.

According to the Accounts by Yesterday's Mail concerning the Russian Troops, Part of the first Column reach'd Kowno in Lithuania the Beginning of this Month; they march about 3 Miles and a half in a Day, but halt every third Day; and Kowno is computed a hundred German Miles from the Frontiers of Moravia;—so that, without allowing for Accidents, it will be the Beginning of May before they reach those Frontiers.

We hear, that at the earnest Sollicitation of several Courts, the Czarina will recall the brave Count Munich from his Exile in Siberia, and restore him, if not to the chief, at least to a considerable Command in her Armies.

Letters from Stockholm intimate, that the Recall of a certain publick

Publick Minister from thence was thought to be owing to a Complaint of his Conduct in a late Transaction, which had been sent to his Court; and that 'twas surmized, his Swedish Majesty would even make a Point of obtaining Satisfaction for some Reflections thrown on the Diet by the said Minister.

The Count de St. Severin set out for Aix the Day after Marshal Saxe set out for Flanders; and the French News-writers tell us, that on his taking his Leave of the King, his Majesty wish'd him a good Journey, and told him, he was assured his Interests could not be trusted in better Hands.

The Courts of France and Spain have again been tampering with his Sardinian Majesty, in order to draw him off from his old Alliance, and have even thrown more advantageous Offers in his Way than any hitherto thought of; but we have had such convincing Proofs of the unshaken Fidelity of that Monarch, that 'tis not doubted but all such-like Attempts will meet with the Contempt they deserve.

The Empress-Queen's final Instructions to Count Cannitz were, not to hearken to any Proposals which had the least Tendency to the dismembring of the Low-Countries; intimating at the same Time, that she was ready to settle the Affairs of Italy on the most reasonable Footing.

BOSTON, May 9.

Early last Wednesday Morning was launched here, his Majesty's Ship Boston, of 600 Tons and 30 Guns, built by Mr. Benjamin Hallowell. She is allow'd by good Judges, to be as compleat a Vessel as ever was built in America, and no ways inferior to those built in his Majesty's Yards at home.
